

BOARD OF REGENTS' PROPOSED FY 2018 TUITION AND FEES

Proposed FY 2018 Tuition and Fees. At its October 20, 2016, meeting, the Board of Regents considered a proposal for FY 2018 tuition and mandatory fees. The proposal will be on the agenda for action at the December 6 meeting.

Tuition and Fee Increases. The proposal includes a 2.0% increase in the resident undergraduate tuition rate for all three universities, with varying increases to nonresident and graduate tuition rates.

The proposal includes increases in mandatory fees for both resident and nonresident students as follows:

- University of Iowa – 2.0%
- Iowa State University – 5.2%
- University of Northern Iowa – 2.6%

The following table details proposed tuition and fee changes for undergraduate students. The full details of the FY 2018 tuition and mandatory fees proposal, including charges for graduate and other higher level students, are available on the Board's website.
